

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

VUZE, THE LEADING ONLINE PLATFORM FOR HIGH-RES AND HD VIDEO, SIGNS WITH UTA FOR REPRESENTATION

BEVERLY HILLS & PALO ALTO (November 27, 2007) ----- Vuze, the fast-growing online entertainment platform with an established audience of 13 million users, has signed a mutually exclusive agreement with leading Hollywood talent agency United Talent Agency (UTA) to serve as their agent for business development and representation.

UTA will assist Vuze in expanding its reach into Hollywood's creative community, identify additional studio, network, music label and website content partners, and connect Vuze to consumer brands to build branded entertainment channels.

"Our strategic partnership with UTA will help expand the entertainment options available to the millions of Vuze users," said Gilles BianRosa, CEO of Vuze Inc. "Vuze is enjoying great momentum and accelerating consumer adoption. Content development with UTA will give our community even more options to enjoy the best selection of high-quality digital content."

"Vuze is perfectly positioned to help the best creative minds enter into this exciting territory," said UTA partner Jeremy Zimmer. "We are excited to help Vuze expand their acquisition strategy for content that already has an audience as well as to define and source the content that will work in the future."

Vuze offers a high-resolution viewing experience in addition to full download of content. To date, Vuze has signed over 100 content partners, including A&E, BBC, CBC, G4 TV, Geneon, The History Channel, inDemand, Ministry of Sound TV, National Geographic, PBS, Pink Planet, Stage 3 Media, Showtime, The Poker Channel, Porchlight, TV Guide Channel, and many more.

About Vuze
